What is SIDS?

Sudden Infant Death Syndrome

This diagnosis isn't a single illness or disease, and it results in healthy babies dying.

There are around 90 deaths a year from this horrible diagnosis, not to mention the families affected.

When doctors and investigators can't pinpoint a reason for the death - SIDS is given as the cause.

Sophie Gates, Georgia Brennan, Julia Angove, Maddie Jeffreys
What is SIDS and Kids?

SIDS and Kids is dedicated to saving the lives of babies and children during pregnancy, birth, infancy and childhood the families of those who have lost a child to the disease.

Each year in Australia about 3500 infants die of Sudden Infant Death Syndrome, more commonly known as SIDS.

http://www.sidsandkids.org/safe-sleeping/education-and-care/services/

https://twitter.com/SIDSandKidsACT
SIDS and Kids works to find answers for parents by funding and supporting vital research into stillbirth, SIDS and safe sleeping practices. Through evidence based community education, SIDS and Kids aim to prevent these deaths provide support to families affected by such a tragedy. This organisation relies almost entirely on the donations of the public and other corporations